APPENDIX

PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. For purposes of this Protective Order:

(a) “Confidential Documents” means documents and other tangible materials containing or reflecting Confidential Information.

(b) “Confidential Information” means (i) traffic data (including but not limited to waybills, abstracts, study movement sheets, and any documents or computer tapes containing data derived from waybills, abstracts, study movement sheets, or other data bases, and cost work papers); (ii) the identification of shippers and receivers in conjunction with shipper specific or other traffic data; (iii) the confidential terms of contracts with shippers or carriers; (iv) confidential financial and cost data; (v) divisions of rates, trackage rights compensation levels, and other compensation between carriers; and, (vi) other confidential, commercial, financial, operational, proprietary, or personal information.

(c) “Designated Material” means any documents designated or stamped as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” in accordance with paragraph 2 or 3 of this Protective Order, and any Confidential Information contained in such materials.

(d) “Party” means San Joaquin Valley Railroad Company and Tulare County, individually, as the case may be.

(e) “Parties” means San Joaquin Valley Railroad Company and Tulare County, collectively, as the case may be.

(f) “Proceeding” means (i) the proceeding before the Surface Transportation Board (“STB” or “Board”) in STB Docket No. AB-398 (Sub-No. 7X), and (ii) any judicial review proceedings arising from (i).

2. If any Party to the Proceeding determines that any part of (i) a document it submits, (ii) a discovery request it propounds, (iii) a discovery response it produces, (iv) a transcript of a deposition or a hearing in which it participates, or (v) a pleading or other paper to be submitted, filed, or served in the Proceeding contains Confidential Information or consists of Confidential Documents, then that Party may designate and stamp such Confidential Information and Confidential Documents as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Any information or documents designated or stamped as “CONFIDENTIAL” shall be handled as provided for hereinafter.

3. If any Party to the Proceeding determines that any part of (i) a document it submits, (ii) a discovery request it propounds, (iii) a discovery response it produces, (iv) a transcript of a deposition or a hearing in which it participates, or (v) a pleading or other paper to be submitted, filed, or served in the Proceeding contains shipper-specific rate or cost data; division of rates, trackage rights compensation levels, or other compensation between carriers; or other competitively sensitive or proprietary information, then that Party may designate and stamp such Confidential Information as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.” Any information or documents so designated or stamped shall be handled as provided hereinafter.

4. Information and documents designated or stamped as “CONFIDENTIAL” may not be disclosed in any way, directly or indirectly, or to any person or entity except to an employee, counsel, consultant, or agent of a Party to this Proceeding, or an employee of such counsel, consultant, or agent, who, before receiving access to such information or documents, has received and has read a copy of this Protective Order and has agreed to be bound by its terms by signing a confidentiality undertaking in the form set forth in the Undertaking for Confidential Material, which shall be provided to the other Party.

5. Information and documents designated or stamped as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” may not be disclosed in any way, directly or indirectly, to any employee of a Party to this Proceeding, or to any other person or entity except to an outside counsel or outside consultant of a Party, who, before receiving access to such information or documents, has received and has read a copy of this Protective Order and has agreed to be bound by its terms by signing a confidentiality undertaking in the form set forth in the Undertaking for Highly Confidential Material, which shall be provided to the other Party.

6. The Parties must file simultaneously a public version of any Highly Confidential or Confidential submission filed with the Board, whether the submission is designated a Highly Confidential Version or Confidential Version. When filing a Highly Confidential Version, the filing Party does not need to file a Confidential Version with the Board, but must make available (simultaneously with the Party’s submission to the Board of its Highly Confidential Version) a Confidential Version reviewable by the other Party’s in-house counsel. The Confidential Version may be served on the other Party in electronic format only. In lieu of preparing a Confidential Version, the filing Party may (simultaneously with the Party’s submission to the Board of its Highly Confidential Version) make available to outside counsel for the other Party a list of all “highly confidential” information that must be redacted from its Highly Confidential Version prior to review by in-house personnel, and outside counsel for the other Party must then redact that material from the Highly Confidential Version before permitting any in-house personnel to review the submission.

7. Any Party to this Proceeding may challenge the designation by the other Party of information or documents as “CONFIDENTIAL” or as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” by filing a motion with the Board or with an administrative law judge or other officer to whom authority has been lawfully delegated by the Board to adjudicate such challenges.

8. Designated Material may not be used for any purposes other than the preparation and presentation of evidence and argument in this Proceeding, as defined herein. Such proscribed purposes include without limitation, business, commercial, operational, and/or competitive purposes.

9. Any Party who receives Designated Material in discovery shall destroy such materials and any notes or documents reflecting such materials, other than file copies of pleadings or other documents filed with the Board and retained by outside counsel for a Party to this Proceeding, at the earlier of: (1) such time as the Party receiving the materials withdraws from this Proceeding; or (2) the completion of this Proceeding, including any petitions for reconsideration, appeals, or remands.

10. No Party may include Designated Material in any pleading, brief, discovery request or response, or other document submitted to the Board, unless the pleading or other document is submitted under seal, in a package clearly marked on the outside as “Confidential Materials Subject to Protective Order.” 49 CFR 1104.14. All pleadings and other documents so submitted shall be kept confidential by the Board and shall not be placed in the public docket in this Proceeding, except by order of the Board or of an administrative law judge or other officer in the exercise of authority lawfully delegated by the Board.

11. No Party may include Designated Material in any pleading, brief, discovery request or response, or other document submitted to any tribunal other than the Board in this Proceeding, unless: (1) the pleading or other document is submitted under seal in accordance with a protective order that requires the pleading or other document to be kept confidential by that tribunal and not be placed in the public docket in the proceeding; or (2) the pleading or other document is submitted in a sealed package clearly marked, “Confidential Materials Subject to Request for Protective Order,” and is accompanied by a motion to that tribunal requesting issuance of a protective order that would require the pleading or other document be kept confidential and not be placed in the public docket in the proceeding, and requesting that, if the motion for protective order is not issued by that tribunal, the pleading or other document be returned to the filing Party.

12. No Party may present or otherwise use any Designated Material at a Board hearing in this Proceeding, unless that Party has previously submitted, under seal, all proposed exhibits and other documents containing or reflecting such Designated Material to the Board, to an administrative law judge, or to another officer to whom relevant authority has been lawfully delegated by the Board, and has accompanied such submission with a written request that the Board, administrative law judge, or other officer: (a) restrict attendance at the hearing during any discussion of such Designated Material; and (b) restrict access to any portion of the record or briefs reflecting discussion of such Designated Material in accordance with this Protective Order.

13. If any Party intends to use any Designated Material in the course of any deposition in this Proceeding, that Party shall so advise counsel for the Party producing the Designated Material, counsel for the deponent, and all other counsel attending the deposition. Attendance at any portion of the deposition at which any Designated Material is used or discussed shall be restricted to persons who may review that material under the terms of this Protective Order. All portions of deposition transcripts or exhibits that consist of, refer to, or otherwise disclose Designated Material shall be filed under seal and be otherwise handled as provided in paragraph 10 of this Protective Order.

14. To the extent that materials reflecting Confidential Information are produced by a Party in this Proceeding, and are held and/or used by the receiving person in compliance with this Protective Order, such production, disclosure, holding, and use of the materials and of the data that the materials contain are deemed essential for the disposition of this Proceeding and will not be deemed a violation of 49 U.S.C. §11904 or any other relevant provision of the ICC Termination Act of 1995.

15. All Parties must comply with all of the provisions of this Protective Order unless the Board or an administrative law judge or other officer exercising authority lawfully delegated by the Board determines that good cause has been shown warranting suspension of any of the provisions herein.

16. Nothing in this Protective Order restricts the right of any Party to disclose voluntarily any Confidential Information originated by that Party, or to disclose voluntarily any Confidential Documents originated by that Party, if such Confidential Information or Confidential Documents do not contain or reflect any Confidential Information originated by any other Party.
